2 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom, 729 sqft

Residential on 0.19 Acres

GRAY MANOR, Dundalk, MD

This charming Colonial-style residence, built in 1943, presents a compelling investment opportunity within the desirable Gray Manor subdivision. The property features a well-structured detached design, constructed with a combination of frame, cement siding, concrete, and brick, ensuring durability and low maintenance. Interior highlights include two spacious bedrooms and a full bathroom equipped with a tub shower. The eat-in kitchen, complemented by table space, offers potential for customization and enhancement. The unfinished basement with interior access and walkout level provides additional space for expansion or storage, presenting opportunities for future development. The exterior features a porch, which is great for relaxation, alongside with sidewalks enhancing curb appeal. The 0.19-acre lot features both front and rear yards, offering ample outdoor space for potential landscaping or recreational use. A detached garage and off-street parking add convenience and value. Investors will appreciate the potential for rental income in this sought-after area, coupled with the opportunity to increase property value through strategic renovations. The combination of location, structural integrity, and available amenities positions this property as a sound investment for those looking to capitalize on the residential market.
